

International Film Festival Seeks Student Films

Student Finalists & Winners Earn Cash Prizes!

The 4th Annual *Daddy Film Festival & Forum (D3F), coming April 2025, is the world's first and only film fest focused exclusively on promoting the importance of positive dad/father figure involvement for kids and families.

WHO MAY SUBMIT?

Students (1st graders – college undergrads)* may submit 1- to 15-minute films/videos (MP4 or MOV format), including music videos & comedies, that relate to one or more D3F themes:

1. A letter to my dad, granddad, or father figure
2. Most joyful/fun thing I ever did with my dad, granddad, or father figure
3. If I could make one wish come true for my dad, granddad, or father figure
4. My Daddy dream – the most positive relationship I could imagine having with my dad/granddad/father figure
5. Men Caring – celebrating men who play nurturing fatherly roles, inspire, and positively impact the lives of children and youth. Examples include foster dads, adoptive dads, granddads, older siblings, coaches, "big brothers," and other daddying role models.
6. NEW for 2025: Granddads & Grandkids – Lessons learned from each other.

Students (under 18) must have a parent's permission to register and upload films via FilmFreeway*

WHAT'S IN IT FOR STUDENTS?

- ✓ A chance to have their work screened in a professional festival setting and seen by audiences worldwide – D3F received entries from 26 countries since 2022!
- ✓ Cash prizes – ALL student FINALISTS earn $250 and frameable laurels. WINNERS earn an additional $250, framed D3F laurel, and an Atticus Award trophy!

WHEN/WHERE TO SUBMIT FILMS TO D3F?

D3F 2025 Call for Entries begins Monday, November 18, 2024.

Submit films/videos on FilmFreeway via DaddyFilmFest.com using the QR code above.